

UNICEF supported Kanyashree Assessment by The Pratichi Institute, Kolkata:

The Kanyashree Assessment being conducted by the Pratichi Institute is a process evaluation aimed at determining the extent to which it has been possible to implement the scheme as intended and planned. It also aims at assessing the coverage, efficiency, effectiveness and quality of the program vis-a-vis its target population across West Bengal. At the end of the project, Pratichi will provide relevant recommendations to the Government of West Bengal to further strengthen the intervention.
